Tohoku Forum for Creativity Call for Program Proposals for 2016

The Tohoku Forum for Creativity (TFC) is currently inviting proposals for three thematic programs in the 2016 academic year (April, 2016-March, 2017) in any branch of research including: social sciences, humanities, physical sciences, and life sciences.

Benefits for Organizers

Financial Assistance

The financial support for each individual TFC program is up to 15,000,000 JPY. This money can be used to pay for the travel and accommodation expenses of invited foreign researchers with expertise in the program theme.

TFC Staff

The TFC staff includes a Vice Director and Program Coordinators who can help organizers in all stages of the program planning process. In addition, the extended TFC staff can also help with many of the practical aspects required to run a successful program.

International Outreach

By running a program at the TFC, the research interests of the program organizers will gain a higher profile in the international community, resulting in new and interesting research opportunities and collaborations.
