

TOHOKU
UNIVERSITY

Tohoku Forum for Creativity Thematic Program 2016
The 21st Century Hasekura Project:
Japanese Studies as the Interface of a New Knowledge

Seminar Series: Philosophy, art and science around 1800

Information

Professor. Paul Ziche, from Utrecht University in the Netherlands, will give a series of six seminars about the relationship between philosophy, art and science in 19th century Germany. All researchers are welcome to join and discuss this topic.

Speaker

Professor. Paul Ziche (Utrecht University, the Netherlands)

Date and Time

May 16, 2016 16:20-	Seminar 1: Philosophy, art and science around 1800
May 17, 2016 13:00-	Seminar 2: The organism as a model for understanding nature, art and science
May 17, 2016 15:00-	Seminar 3: "Nature" between philosophy and natural science
May 23, 2016 16:20-	Seminar 4: "Romantic" art and "romantic" science
May 28, 2016 15:00-	Seminar 5: Towards general science - New scientific concepts around 1900 (Husserl seminar)
May 31, 2016 10:30-	Seminar 6: Case study: Landscape painting in theory and practice in the work of C.G. Carus

Venue

Seminar 1-4, 6:

Room 919, 9F, Graduate school of Arts and Letters,
Tohoku University Kawauchi South Campus

Seminar 5 (Husserl seminar):

Room 909, 9F, Graduate school of Arts and Letters,
Tohoku University Kawauchi South Campus

TOHOKU FORUM
for CREATIVITY

www.tfc.tohoku.ac.jp

Supported by TEL™ TOKYO ELECTRON