

Kaori Nishide, TNO Food & Nutrition Japan

After graduation from Faculty of Agriculture, Kyoto University, Kaori was seconded as an exchange student to the Institute of Environmental Sciences, Leiden University, while she was attending at the Graduate School of Agriculture in Kyoto. She has obtained two master diplomas: MSc Environmental Sciences from Wageningen University and MBA from University of Bradford. Her previous work experiences include marketing, corporate strategy, business analysis, M&A, consulting and journalism at international companies in/for the food industry, until she moved to Tokyo in the end of 2013 for the current engagement with TNO. In 2015, Kaori acted a committee member of Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries of Japan to stimulate open innovation in Japanese agro food sector, while actively presenting at food and health related symposia and exhibitions throughout the country. Kaori is also a passionate jazz pianist and a jazz lecturer, incorporating non-musically oriented themes in improvised music such as emotion, nature and landscape.