Open Problems in Knot Energy
Jun O'Hara (Chiba University)

Energy of knots was introduced in early 90's to produce an optimal shape of knot for each knot type as the energy minimizer. I will give a survey and introduce some open problems.